
Thomas Jefferson wrote:

“Dependence begets subservience and venality, suffocates the germ of virtue, and prepares fit tools for the designs of ambition.”

As he had a dislike of dependence, so he had a marked partiality for “those who labour in the earth”; but let us extend his favor to all those who learn to depend on their own toil and industry for prosperity and well-being.

This is not a new idea.

The Business Resource Center at Wayne Public Library has been created for just such a purpose. We encourage you to discover your inner entrepreneur , find financial freedom, and perhaps your dreams.
